Neha's Alarm Clock

Narrator : Ring! Ring! Ring! Off goes the alarm clock at six in the morning. Neha makes a face and covering her ears with a pillow, snuggles under the warm blanket. But she knows she has to get up. She mutters to herself.

Neha : This alarm clock always rings at six and pulls me out of the bed! It's so unfair...Oh, how I would love to sleep a little longer in the morning! I wish this clock would forget its job sometimes.

Narrator : Something falls. Neha smiles.

Neha : Oh! My clock has fallen. How happy I am! Tomorrow I can get up late.

Narrator : Next morning there is no alarm. So Neha sleeps and sleeps. The small chirpy birds which come to the window sill every morning find Neha still sleeping.

Birds : Wake up dear! Wake up fast!

Narrator : Neha gets up with a start.

Neha : Oh, no! If it's not the alarm clock, it's these birds...why don't they leave me alone?

Narrator : Even this wish of Neha's comes true. The next morning there is not only no alarm clock, there are no birds either. But there is someone else who does not want her to miss the school bus. Can you guess who it is? The big bright Sun! He fills Neha's room with a warm smile.

Neha : Oh, my eyes! Now it's the Sun waking me up! Why can't he let me be?

Narrator : Even this wish of Neha's comes true. Next morning the Sun is behind the clouds. So, Neha snores till she hears her mother's voice...

Mother : Wake up, sleepy head. You will miss the bus.

Neha : Oh no! Why does mother have to wake me up?

Narrator : There is no escape now. Neha gets up and gets ready. Can you imagine what happens the next day? Neha wakes up with a start. Her watch says it is six o'clock. She calls out to her mother.

Neha : Ma, who woke me up today?

Narrator : Mother smiles.

Mother : Who else? You, of course!

Neha : But, I was sleeping,
how could I ..?

Mother : Now, tell me, why do you
eat your lunch every day at one in the afternoon?

Neha : I feel hungry.

Mother : Why do you sleep at nine
every night?

Neha : Because I feel sleepy.

Mother : There is a clock inside you which tells you when to eat, when to sleep and when to wake up.

Neha : Oh! Ooh! I better rush now. I don't want to miss the bus.

THEMES

The importance of time
Appreciating nature

Teacher's page

Unit 1

Poem : Wake up!

Story : Neha's Alarm Clock

This Unit focuses on appreciation of the beauty in nature, the magic of words and to give children experiences in expressing their feelings. This Unit is also a listening Unit – it gives children something to listen to as you read the poem to them. Ask children why they like the poem and read the poem again for interesting and beautiful sounds. Begin this Unit by pointing to the pictures and ask children what beautiful colours they see. Provide a print rich environment.

Warm up

It is important to do warm up exercises related to the theme, like, let children stretch their arms, exercise and jog as if to wake up wide. Relate this to the natural beauty of the morning.

Reading time

Read the chapter to the students at a stretch, giving the meanings of the new and difficult words so that they can understand the text. Use appropriate words, expressions, phrases in different situations. This can help you to assess the child's ability to listen with attention for a reasonable length of time, share the main idea of the text and accelerate recall skills.

Give the children a chance to read individually.

Sharing time

Involve the class in a group reading session. Let children add meaning with voice modulation and body gestures.

Dramatise the play for the morning assembly. Let each child express what they feel when they have to get up in the morning.

Team time

- Play memory games. You can write down ten new words from the lesson on the blackboard. Let the children look at the words for two minutes. Ask the children to close their eyes. You can then erase one word. The children will then open their eyes and identify the word that has been erased.
- Since breakfast is important for good health, each child could be asked what he had for breakfast. Then ask them to give the importance of milk, lassi, butter. Let them add what they eat / will like to eat.
- Discuss the importance of time and punctuality with the class. While discussing other ways of finding time, the sun dial, shadows and position of sun can be introduced.

Environment

Create a Junior Green Brigade as a group of keen environmentalists who assist in keeping the school green and clean; they can be actively involved in successful projects against crackers and banning the use of polybags in the school and community. The school can encourage cloth bags which are an attractive and environment-friendly alternative to plastic.

UNIT-2

Noses

The Little Fir Tree

Let's read and sing

Noses

0424CH02

I looked in the mirror
and looked at my nose:
it's the funniest thing,
the way it grows
stuck right out where all of it shows with two little holes where the breathing goes.

I looked in the mirror
and saw in there
the end of my chin
and the start of my hair
and between there isn't much space to spare with my nose,
like a handle, sticking there.

If ever you want to giggle and shout
and can't think of what to do it about,
just look in the mirror and then, no doubt,
you'll see how funny YOUR nose sticks out!

– Aileen Fisher

New words

Write three pairs of words that rhyme with each other.

The Little Fir Tree

Merlin the magician was returning home, when all of a sudden it began to rain. It rained heavily. Merlin looked around for shelter and saw a pretty little fir tree. He ran towards it as fast as he could.

Soon the rain stopped. Merlin was happy that he did not get wet.

“Thank you, you have been kind to me. I would like to reward you. Ask for four wishes and I will grant them,” said the magician.

The sad fir tree had leaves like needles and no birds ever made their nests on it. So it said, "I wish I had green leaves like my other friends."

Next morning, its wish was granted. Soon a goat came along and ate all the green leaves. "Oh! dear," said the fir tree. "I wish I had gold leaves as goats do not eat gold leaves."

When the little fir tree woke up the next morning, it was surprised to see gold leaves.

"How happy I am!" it said.

A man came along and stole the gold leaves.

"I wish I had glass leaves instead. Men do not steal glass leaves."

The next day its glass leaves shone in the bright sun. "How happy I am!" it said.

At night the wind blew whoo...oo...oo. All the glass leaves broke.

“Oh dear!” said the fir tree. I like my old needle-like leaves best, for goats do not eat them.

No man can steal them.

The wind will do them no harm.”

The tree went to sleep. When it woke up the next morning, it had all its needles back again.

“Oh! I never was so happy,” said the little fir tree.

Unit 2

Poem : Noses
Story: The Little Fir Tree

The main aim of this Unit is to sensitise the child and make her/him feel happy with what she/he is or has. These expressions of inner feelings are not to be judged/labelled but may only be heard, seen and shared by you.

Give the children practice in observation and conversation. Let them talk freely about different type of faces and noses that they have seen. Bring the shy child into conversation while asking questions. Talk with them about the way they use their eyes, ears, nose and minds.

Develop the child's self-esteem and cultivate children's creativity. In the context of a fast changing world, it is imperative that we respect the children's wisdom and imagination.

How do we behave and see ourselves and how do others see us? Do they see us as kind, helpful or funny? Stress the three sides of a person. The one you think you are, the one others think you are, the one you really are.

Warm up

If you have a child in your class who you feel is not very confident, invite the little one to sit comfortably and then involve four/five children to share something they like about her/him as a friend. With exchanges and sharing in this way, you will very soon have a class where children relate to each other and participate in learning.

Avoid correcting them when they are speaking. The idea is to build confidence, and finally, fluency in speaking.

Reading time

Step 1 : Read the text aloud with voice modulation.

Step 2 : Let the children read the text along with you.

Sharing time

In this Unit involve children with 'a creative time' activity, for example, let them share with you their interest in speaking, writing, drawing (any other art form or paper activity). They can be encouraged to use this medium to express "Who am I? What do I want to be?" The activity helps the children to express their thoughts logically. They also learn to interact with each other.

Divide the class into conversation groups. Help each child to think and talk about what he saw that morning – his father, baby sister, pet, etc. and ask them how they feel. They can illustrate this through pictures which can be displayed in the class.

Writing time

Help children improve their handwriting with practice but guide them by precept and discussion.

Handwriting suggestions can be put up on a chart for the class. Some of these can be to –

- (a) make the writing even
- (b) begin sentences with capital letters
- (c) end the sentences with periods or question marks
- (d) write the letters carefully on the line.

Creative time

- Ensure that the children's running handwriting is done in their notebooks.
- From the spellings that they have learnt from this lesson, let them construct meaningful sentences in their notebooks.
- Try to teach organisational skills. Let children make a poem on their eyes/ears, or on the peacock, our national bird, in their notebooks.
- Introduce the use of 'and' and 'but' through oral work to bring out the function of addition and contrast respectively.

Language corner : Let children be given sentences using is/are.

Run!

0424CH03

AWAY from the city
And into the sun,
Out to the country,
Run! Run! Run!

Run in the raindrops!
Run 'neath the trees!
Run little races
With each little breeze!

Run down the hillside,
Run up the lane;
Run through the meadow,
Then run back again!

Run and be merry
All through the day!
Run to the country,
Away! Away!

The Great War of Animals

Once Upon a time in a forest...

Tortoise, Can you guard my eggs?

Hehe, Don't be afraid. If you break the eggs, I'll save you from the python.

Oh no! I broke all the eggs. What should we do?

He rolled and hit the wall of a bear's house.

Who is it?

Ah. It's me, the tortoise.

Who is it?

It's me the tortoise.

Who is it?

It's me the tortoise.

but..but...

knock knock

Who is it?

It's me the tortoise.

44

While the tortoise was guarding the Python's eggs, a deer came passing by.

Hey, let's see if we can jump over the python's eggs.

No, if I fall and break the eggs the python will kill me!!

The deer jumped first and easily jumped over the python's eggs. But when the tortoise tried to jump over the eggs...

I...I...I'm also afraid of the python. I cannot help you. Please run away as fast as you can...

The tortoise could not run past. He tumbled and fell...

Why are you running? What are you afraid of?

I am running away from the python. I broke all her eggs... I am afraid. Please help me.

Eh..I am also afraid of the python. I cannot help you.

The tortoise went everywhere for help. But all the animals were afraid of the python and could not help him. At last, he knocked on the door of a big eagle.

The python went searching for the tortoise everywhere.

The eagle then spread the other wing a little bit and the python immediately saw the tortoise's tail.

The python became very angry.

Grrr...I declare a war between animals on land and animals on trees.

All the animals that lived on land gathered together to plan the war.

At the same time, all the animals that lived on trees gathered together on a big branch of a banyan tree. They got busy planning the war.

So began the war of animals!

I am going to smash the branch of your tree!!!

The Python started the attack by first smashing the branch where the birds were sitting. The birds were so Prightened, they Flew over to a branch on the other side of the tree.

Seeing the python in action, the animals on land were very happy...

Ho..Ho.. the python smashed the branch.

The python rested for some time, then smashed the other branch where all the birds had shifted.

A bat was on the birds' side. But...

So the bat fought alongside the land animals and the battle was fierce.

Meanwhile, the eagle was in a heated battle with the python. The eagle grabbed and began to shake the python violently.

When the animals on trees saw what was happening to the python...

On seeing this, the bat flew up to them.

Uh.. Look at me.
look at my wings.
I belong with you.

The war was fought harder than ever before. The python, for the last time, tried to snap the branch once more, but this time she could not break it, instead she hung loosely on the branch.

Seizing the opportunity the eagle bit the python and broke her spine.

Finally, the python was dead.

All the animals on the trees celebrated happily...

Many years have passed, animals on land and trees have made peace with one another. The cowardly bat who kept changing sides during the war, feeling ashamed, decided to live in a cave, coming out only at night.

That is why we see bats only at night.

A Puppet head

You can use an old tennis ball which has lost its bounce, to make the head of a puppet. She looks like a little girl in a skirt and is very quick and easy to make.

Look at the picture carefully and you will see how she works – your fingers are her arms!

You need –

a tennis ball, needle, wool, coloured cloth.

Method –

1. Start with the head. Make a small hole in the ball and push a long, thick knitting-needle (about size 3), into it.
2. The needle goes in on one side and right across inside the ball to touch the opposite side.
3. The hole needs to be very small, so that it is difficult to push the needle in. In this way it will fit tightly and remain firm when you play with your puppet.

4. Now cut the thick top off an old nylon sock and stretch it tightly round the ball, sewing it together down the back.

5. Take some coloured wool and stick on the ball. Make plaits. Paint the eyes and lips on the ball.

6. Cut two holes in the coloured cloth to put in your fingers.

7. Hold the needle in your hand to hold your puppet.

Write two sentences on your puppet.

Unit 3

Poem : Run!

Story : The Great War of Animals

This Unit develops concentration for the work that children are involved with.

Warm up

Before beginning the poem, the teacher can ask the children to run around the class in silence and then –

Stand straight

1. Take a deep breath inhaling through your nose.
2. Hold till the count of five.
3. Release the air through your nose.
4. Repeat it five times.

Stretch their arms sideways

1. Keeping your arms stretched, bring your hands down from the elbow level.
2. Stretch your arms sideways again.
3. Repeat it five times.

Reading time

While reading the lesson, the teacher can talk about concentration that leads to success. Concentration is essential for studies as well as sports.

The teacher should read the given instructions in the questions very clearly so that the children understand them and follow them accordingly.

Sharing time

- ◆ Discuss the feelings after running.
- ◆ To keep pace with the activity of running, the teacher can ask the children to read the poem fast, imagining that they are running and reading (speed and fast-track 😊).
- ◆ Having experienced the running activity, children should be encouraged to answer the talk time correctly.

Creative time

Involve the children with words like racing, diving, jumping, swimming, running, for example – Racing boats is a sport. A girl is diving. I am jumping. We are running a race. They can either enact or draw to express the sense of movement (this is an indirect way of sharing verbs as 'doing' words). These drawings with sight words can be hung in the class. Teachers may lay more emphasis on the inclusion of sports and games from the local area. They may organise special sports programmes both before and after school hours to enable children with special talents for training. Team games such as basket ball, kabaddi, volleyball can be encouraged.

Language corner

The lesson deals with a lot of words ending with 'ing'. The teacher should encourage the class to use 'ing' words in sentences, orally as well as in the written format.

For example: What are you doing?
I am speaking.

Environment

Let students express their concerns on the environmental degradation around us.

I know a curious little boy,
Who is always asking “Why?”
Why this, why that, why then, why now?
Why not, why by-the-by?

He wants to know why wood should swim,
Why lead and marble sink,
Why sun should shine and wind should blow
And why we eat and drink.

He wants to know what makes the clouds
And why they cross the sky,
Why sinks the sun behind the hills
And why the flowers die.

water colour, plate for mixing.

Method –

Take an onion. Cut it into half. Mix some paint of any colour with a little water in a plate. Dip the cut side of the onion into the colour. Now press it on a paper to make designs. Press the bottle top into the centre of the design.

You can use another colour for the other onion half and the other bottle top.

Let's sing

The Man in an Onion Bed

I met a man in an onion bed.
He was crying so hard his eyes were red.
And the tears rolled off the end of his nose
As he ate his way down the onion rows.
He ate and he cried, but for all his tears
He sang, "Sweet onions, oh my dears!
I love you, I do and you love me,
But you make me as sad as a man can be."

Alice in Wonderland

One day, Alice was lying under a tree listening to her sister reading a story.

Suddenly, she saw a white rabbit scamper by. He had pink eyes and was wearing a blue coat. He took out a big watch from his waistcoat pocket and as he hurried away, he said, "Oh dear, I will be too late!"

She thought there was something very different about this rabbit. It could talk, it wore a red waistcoat and it carried a watch.

Alice wondered, "A talking rabbit?"

A rabbit who wears a waistcoat!"

Alice was burning with curiosity and she followed the white rabbit.

The rabbit started running and Alice followed the rabbit. The rabbit suddenly popped down a large rabbit hole. Alice jumped into the rabbit hole too! The rabbit went down and down and down and down into the rabbit hole.

Alice said aloud, "Where am I? How many miles down have I fallen? I must be getting somewhere near the centre of the earth." She wondered, "Will I slip through the earth to the other side?"

Thump! Alice landed on a pile of dry leaves. She looked around quickly and suddenly saw the white rabbit again. It disappeared saying, "Oh, my ears and whiskers! How late it's getting!"

Alice stood up and saw a small door about fifteen inches high. It was too small for her to go through.

She saw a glass table with a golden key on it. She tried the little golden key in the lock and to her delight it fitted! Alice opened the door and looked into the loveliest garden she had ever seen! How she longed to be among those beds of bright flowers and those cool fountains! But she could not even get her head through the doorway.

“Oh! How I wish, I could become smaller!” she exclaimed loudly.

Poem: Why?

Story: Alice in Wonderland

This Unit builds up a sense of imagination, curiosity, wonder and creativity, self-expression, courage and spontaneity.

Warm up

Initiating a class warm up time with children playing a game/exercising around, pose as if you are a statue showing different expressions – smile, share, think, imagine, wait...

Reading time

Along with the text, children can be encouraged to read/enact 'Alice in Wonderland' and other fairy tales. Through the use of words the child can let his friends see the wonderful stories and poems he invents in his mind.

Sharing time

Talk about curiosity with children. Ask them questions related to what they are curious about or interested in. Where do they experience most things?

Answer the various questions that they would like to ask.

Tell them other stories related to curious things in the world. Tell them to read the newspapers and talk about important events. In what areas do they get their best ideas?

Creative time

An environment that is laced with the child's freedom to express how he thinks the world is can be encouraged by any medium that she/he chooses, e.g., through role play, (e.g: What do you want to be? Why?) Aesthetics (e.g., creating rhymes, music, art, craft..).

Language corner

Use of dictionary in the classroom is very important. It will encourage the students to increase their vocabulary and understand different words. The teacher can use the mother tongue to explain difficult words and ask them to make sentences of their own.

Environment

Vermiculture is a simple, efficient and environment friendly technique to decompose organic waste into valuable organic manure. Help from the local school gardener can be taken.

Don't be Afraid of the Dark

Don't be afraid of the dark, little one,
The earth must rest when the day is done.
The sun must be harsh, but moonlight – never!
And those stars will be shining forever and ever,

Be friends with the Night, there is nothing to fear,
Just let your thoughts travel to friends far and near.

But at night, late at night, the world is at peace.

*Look at the picture and describe it.
Why do you think the boy is happy?*

Helen Keller

It was the summer of 1880. A healthy baby girl was born in a small town in Alabama. Her parents loved her dearly and named her Helen Keller. But one day, the baby became ill and day after day, her fever stayed high. Everyone in the family tried to help her to get better, but all they could say was, “There is nothing more we can do. The baby may not live.”

Helen lived. But she was not the same after her illness. “Something is very wrong,” her mother said. At last they found out what was wrong. The child could not see or hear.

The baby grew into a little girl. Her parents felt sorry for her. Helen often cried and held on to her mother. “Give the poor child what she wants,” her father would say.

Though Helen could not hear or see, she was a bright little girl. Some people thought Helen could not learn anything. Her mother did not agree. “Helen is very smart,” she said and added, “the problem is, how can we reach her? She is locked up inside herself.”

Helen began to grow wild. She would not let anyone comb her hair. Her clothes were always dirty. She was often angry. Sometimes she even lay on the floor and kicked her feet.

Her parents thought that they should find a teacher for her. Miss Sullivan, a young teacher agreed to help Helen to learn to see the world. Miss Sullivan gave Helen a doll. "D_O_L_L" spells doll. She spelt the word with her fingers into Helen's hand. She made the letters with special hand signs.

Helen copied her teacher and spelt D_O_L_L too, but she did not understand what she was doing. Helen liked Miss Sullivan. She was strict but kind. She spelt a lot of words for Helen, on her hand, day and night, to make Helen understand.

One day, her teacher made Helen put her hand into running water. Then, she spelt W_A_T_E_R. Suddenly Helen understood that W_A_T_E_R meant something wet, running over her hand. She understood that words were the most important things in the world. Words would tell her everything she wanted to know.

This Unit is about sensitising children to the world around them, in terms of their thoughts about fear of night, darkness etc. It is also about 'differences' in children which emerge due to certain individual needs that may affect their learning styles.

Warm up

A blindfold game where simple, 'catch-the-thief', 'follow-the-leader' games, can be initiated, to give children a sense of joy and participation in the process of developing sensitivity towards others.

Opportunities need to be given to all children and their specific abilities need to be recognised and appreciated. This includes children with disabilities, who may need assistance or more time to complete tasks.

Reading time

1. By this Unit you can now involve the children in silent reading of the lessons before you actually start reading aloud to them. Identify a few children who could initiate a reading session for the others. The bottom line for this Unit should be how to involve the entire class into reading, listening and answering queries.
2. A small classwise competition within the school can be initiated.

Sharing time

1. Involve the children in sharing what they have felt during warm up time.
2. A chart about difficulties that children have in terms of their fears, I don't like, I can't do can be put up in the class.

The idea is not only to make children do things but also to hear and understand what they feel they can't do. This feedback will work to sensitise you with their individual needs.

Creative time

1. Emphasise on similar sounding words with different spellings e.g. bee/be, son/sun and other words given in the text.
2. Rhyming words can also now be introduced and children can be encouraged to create their own little poems using rhyming names in the class (names of children /name of things in the classrooms) in alphabetical order. These can be put on a chart and children can then make a class rhyme.

Language corner

1. The chart above can form the central point of the language corner.
2. Children can be subtly involved in making written presentations about their thoughts, feeling and ideas about this Unit.
3. Assessment of the class based on reading, listening, writing can now start with each child getting a feedback.

Environment

Issues related to the class, like using less paper should now be focused upon.

Hiawatha

The Scholar's
Mother Tongue

Enjoy this poem

Hiawatha

0424CH06

Hiawatha was a young Red Indian boy. He lived with his old grandmother, Nokomis, in a wigwam.

Nokomis taught Hiawatha about the wonders around them. She told him about the stars, the trees, the insects, the birds, the animals, and many other things.

Hiawatha grew up to love them all. He could talk to the birds and the animals, and they to him.

“Then the little Hiawatha
Learned of every bird its language,
Learned their names and all their secrets,
How they built their nests in Summer,
Where they hid themselves in Winter,
Talked with them whene’er he met them,
Called them ‘Hiawatha’s chickens.’

Of all beasts he learned the language,
Learned their names and all their secrets,
How the beavers built their lodges,
Where the squirrels hid their acorns,
How the reindeer ran so swiftly,
Why the rabbit was so timid,
Talked with them whene'er he met them,

Birbal came to the court the next day and told everyone that the Pundit's mother tongue was Telugu. The Pundit was surprised and accepted the truth.

King Akbar then asked Birbal, "How did you find the truth?"

THEMES

Communication, mother tongue and multilingualism

Teacher's page

Unit 6

Poem : Hiawatha

Story: The Scholar's Mother Tongue

The teacher's effort in this Unit is to realise that as children develop the skill in using language, they acquire the ability to think objectively. Many factors in the home environment affect the way a child learns language.

- Help students use language to transmit and receive meaning.
- Develop in children the ability to listen effectively to communicate with others.

Give a variety of inputs in English and use the mother tongue as a resource.

Materials can be designed to promote multilingual activities, and teachers need to work out how more than one language can be used naturally. Teachers can introduce parallel texts in more than one language – these may be the same story in different Indian languages to involve similar language activities such as rhymes, sound games, etc.

Warm up

Create a class drama where some children can take up roles as ka nu, ka pa, ka u, ka ni, ka patea. The rest of the class can go and ask them for their favourite food/clothes/stories (this exchange in a warm-up exercise will bring out the vibrancy of language).

Reading time

Reading is a transferable skill – improvement in reading in one language results in reading improvement in general. Try to foster correct pronunciation and develop fluency in speech.

Sharing time: Share the story of Mowgli the boy who was brought up in the Indian jungles with the help of Baloo the bear and Bagheera the panther and how they have to fight the tiger Sherkhan and the animals in the jungle. If possible let them hear the song जंगल जंगल बात चली है पता चला है चड़्डी पहन कर फूल खिला है (the Japanese animation of Jungle Book's original story by Rudyard Kipling was dubbed in Hindi for Doordarshan in the early 1990's).

Creative time: Ask children to talk to imaginary friends like the wind, water, trees, grass and ask them to write/draw what they felt.

Language corner: Class dictionary from Unit 1 to 6 should be checked and Unit 7 to be included.

Environment: An outdoor trip where the children are involved with creating a learning environment.

The Giving Tree
The Donkey

Read and learn this poem

A Watering Rhyme

0424CH07

Early in the morning,
Or the evening hour,
Are the times to water
Every kind of flower.
Watering at noonday,
When the sun is high,
Doesn't help the flowers,
Only makes them die.

Also, when you water,
Water at the roots;
Flowers keep their mouths where
We should wear our boots.
Soak the earth around them,
Then through all the heat
The flowers will have water
For their thirsty 'feet'!

The Giving Tree

How do you feel when you help someone?

How do you feel when you share your things with others?

Read this play to know how a tree feels when it helps a boy.

Narrator : Once there was a tree and it loved a little boy. Every day the boy would visit the tree and enjoy its company.

Tree : Come here, my boy. Come and climb up my trunk and swing from my branches.

Boy : (swinging from branches)

Ah, what fun!

Tree : Are you hungry? Eat my apples.

Boy : (eating apples) How delicious!

Narrator : When the boy was tired, he slept under the tree. The tree was happy to give its shade. But time went by. And the boy grew older and went away.

The tree was often alone. After some years... One day the boy came to the tree and the tree was very happy.

Tree : Come, my boy, come and climb up my trunk and swing from my branches.

Boy : I am too big to climb and play. I want to buy things and have fun. I want some money. Can you give me some money?

Tree : I'm sorry but I have no money. I have only leaves and apples. You can pluck my apples and sell them in the market. Then you will have money.

Narrator : The boy happily plucked the apples and carried them away. The tree was also happy. But the boy stayed away for a long time and the tree was sad. One day, the boy came back and the tree shook with joy.

Tree : Come, Boy, come and climb up my trunk. Swing from my branches, eat my apples, play in my shade and be happy.

Boy : I am too busy to climb trees. I am getting married and I need a house for my wife and children. Can you give me a house?

Tree : I have no house but you may cut off my branches and build a house.

Narrator : So the boy cut off the tree's branches and carried them away to build a house.

The tree was very happy.

But the boy stayed away for a long time and the tree was sad again.

And when he came back after some years, the tree was so happy that it could hardly speak. Now, the boy was a young man.

Tree : Come, Boy, come. What can I do for you?

Young man : I am going on a business trip. I want a boat to take me away. Can you give me a boat?

Tree : All I have left is a trunk. Cut down my trunk and make a boat. Then you can sail away.

Narrator : The young man cut the trunk of the tree and sailed away in a boat. The tree was left only with a stump.

And after a long time the young man came back again. Now he was an old man but the tree recognised him.

Tree : I am sorry, friend, but I have nothing left to give you. My apples are gone.

Old man : My teeth are too weak for apples.

Tree : My branches are gone. You cannot swing on them.

Old man : I am too old to swing on branches.

Tree : My trunk is gone. You cannot climb.

Old man : I am too tired to climb.

Tree : (sighing) I am sorry. I wish that I could give you something..but I have nothing left. I am just an old stump. I am sorry...

Old man : Dear tree, you have always given. But now I don't need much— just a quiet place to sit and rest.

Tree : (happily) Well, an old stump is good for sitting and resting on. Come, friend, sit down and rest.

This Unit further sensitises children to use the language that energises from their natural surroundings.

Warm up

Divide the class into groups of four students each to read and discuss. While groups are working, encourage and help students with vocabulary or any expressions only after you have given them a chance to make their own choices.

Reading time

Repeat the instructions as given before. Encourage children to read aloud with voice modulation. This can now be a time of class evaluation/ assessment. Let the class be divided into four groups and each group can be assessed for reading by the others on scales like –

1. Excellent!
2. Good
3. Try harder

Sharing time

Encourage creative writing with emphasis on self-expression, sharing ideas, feelings, responses to experiences in their own ways.

With emphasis on observation, perception, imagination, let children be aware of the natural world around.

We both love to read.

Should we go now?

Should we go later?

Should we go today?

Should we go tomorrow?

We decided to go right now.

Should we go to the big market?
Should we go to the small shop?
Should we go with somebody?
Should we go alone?
We decided to go to the small shop,
just the two of us.

We like the small bookshop.
It is small but it has many books.
The man in the shop likes us.
He always helps us.

Should I buy a book with a lot of pictures?
Should I buy a book with a lot of stories?
Should I buy a thin book?
I could not decide.

We did not know which book to buy.
The man in the shop smiled at us.
“Relax, come with me,” he said.
“These books are about animals.
Those are about machines.
Those over there are about wars.
Take what you want.”

I picked some books.
My brother picked some books.
I sat on the floor.
He sat on the chair.
And we read and we read and we read.

It was very quiet.
There was no sound.
One hour passed.
Two hours passed.

Finally, we knew which books to buy.

The man in the bookshop smiled at us.
I got a fat book with many stories.
My brother got a big book with many pictures.

We ran home to our grandfather.
We climbed on his bed.
He put his arms around us and then
We read, and read, and read.

– Rukmini Banerji

1. a circle
2. a square
3. a triangle
4. a piece of paper with three signatures
5. a piece of paper with red colour

Let's talk

1. Is there a bookshop near your home? If there is, do you like to visit it?
2. What are the different kinds of books in this bookshop or in any other bookshop you have seen? Tell the class.

Let's write

1. Look at these sentences in the story –
 - (a) Should we go to the big market?
 - (b) Should we go to the small shop?
 - (c) Should I buy a thin book?

The coloured words above are describing words.

Now fill in more describing words into the passage below –

It was a _____ night. A _____ girl sat up in bed listening to her mother tell a _____ story. Her _____ eyes opened wide and she gave a _____ smile. "Now go to sleep, Paro," her mother closed the book. "_____ dreams."

2. Imagine that you will go to the bookshop tomorrow. What will you do there? Write five sentences beginning with –

- (a) I shall _____
- (b) I shall _____
- (c) I shall _____
- (d) I shall _____
- (e) I shall _____

3. Tina goes to her school library to borrow a book. Complete her dialogue with the librarian by using and or or in the blanks.

Librarian: Do you want a story book _____ a book of poems?

Tina: I want a story book.

Librarian: Do you like stories about animals _____ adventure stories?

Tina: I like both.

Librarian: Go to the second cupboard. On the first shelf, you will find animal stories _____ on the second, adventure stories.

Tina (after selecting two books): Ma'am, I want Black Beauty _____ Fairy Tales.

Librarian: You can have either Black Beauty _____ Panchantantra Stories.

4. What is your favourite book? Write down the name of the book. Then write down the story.

Let's make a bookmark

Make your own bookmark

Remember to treat your books well. Never fold the corners of pages. This makes books look shabby and old.

A bookmark helps you to find the page you were on when you last read your book.

Here is a way to make your own beautiful Dove Bookmark.

You need –

- An old greetings card/wedding card/scissors
- A black button for the eyes

Method –

- Take the old card. You will need to use the inside of the card.
- Fold it into two as shown in the picture.
- Trace the outline of a dove on the card.
- Cut it along the lines.
- Make an outline with a black pen.
- Stick a button for the eye.
- Paste it on a strip of 2 inches x 4 inches.
- Your Dove Bookmark is now ready to be used.

Let's cover our book

1. Spread your notebook on a brown paper which is four inches bigger than your notebook, as shown in the picture.
2. Fold the paper into two halves with the book inside it in the middle.
3. Fold the two open flaps of paper inside the first and the last page of the book and press to crease.
4. Fold the closed end of the two top and bottom flaps of the paper, forming a triangle. Crease the paper and cut it.
5. Fold the two front flaps inside the first page and crease it.
6. Fold the two back flaps under the last page and crease it.
7. Now your book is neatly covered.
8. Write your name and class on the cover. Then write the subject you will use this notebook for.

DO YOU KNOW?

The earliest books were written by hand. Two thousand years ago in India, birch bark and palm leaves were used for pages. A pen and black ink were used to write on birch bark. A sharp, iron spike was used for writing on palm leaves. Holes were drilled through the leaves and the book was held together by a string!

Unit 8

Poem : Books

Story: Going to Buy a Book

By this Unit the children can be encouraged to prepare their own class dictionary. Reading aloud and looking at colourful illustrations together will help children love books. Show your children that reading books is a pleasant and a meaningful activity. Encourage reading as an individual activity in addition to the pleasure of reading.

Library time

1. Let the class visit the school or local library where the librarian can show where different kinds of books are kept.
2. Let each child choose one book to read and talk about it later. Keep a large chart that shows how many books the class has read through the year.
3. Find out what kinds of books children like to read most (e.g. adventure stories, mysteries, information books, humour or even comics etc.). Encourage children to describe favourite books that they have read.
4. Emphasise how books must be loved and kept well. Show them how to cover their books. Encourage them to use bookmarks.
5. Divide the class into three groups. Let the entire class recite the chorus together. Each group can recite two lines in turn.
6. Practise the usage of future tense by giving the class different situations.
7. Talk about the characters, setting, action and descriptions. Help the child to link the story to events and real life situations.
8. Read words aloud. Talk about the letters, sounds and meanings.
9. Take care to see that the language is at the child's level, the material varied and stories joyful.
10. Carry out a brief conversation, involving seeking and giving information.
11. Take dictation of simple sentences and practise copy writing from the blackboard and textbook, and use common punctuation marks.

There was a naughty boy,
And a naughty boy was he.
He ran away to Scotland,

The people there to see –

Then he found

That the ground

Was as hard,

That a yard

Was as long,

That a song

Was as merry,

That a cherry
Was as red,
That lead
Was as weighty,
That fourscore

That a door was as wooden
As in England—
So he stood in his shoes
And he wondered,
He wondered,
He stood in his shoes,
And he wondered.

Pinocchio

Once upon a time, an old carpenter bought a very queer piece of wood. As he used his plane on it, he heard a little laughing voice say, "Stop! You're tickling me."

The old man was puzzled by the voice.

He said, "This is a strange piece of wood. What shall I do with it? I think I'll make it into a puppet."

He set to work, and as the puppet boy took shape, the old man said, "He must have a name. I will call him Pinocchio."

As soon as he finished making the eyes, the carpenter was amazed to see them move.

Before the mouth was made, it began to laugh. "Stop laughing!" the old man said.

It did stop, but as soon as his back was turned, it put out its tongue. And its nose grew long.

No sooner were its hands ready than it snatched off the carpenter's wig and put it on its own head. And then Pinocchio's nose grew longer.

When its legs and feet were made, they were too stiff to use, so the carpenter showed Pinocchio how to use them.

Now, the carpenter decided to send Pinocchio to school. But there, Pinocchio did nothing but look for fun. He often ran away from school.

"Why don't you go to school?" asked the carpenter.

Pinocchio told him a lie... and his nose started growing longer and longer.

Each time he was rude to someone or told a lie, his nose grew longer. Finally Pinocchio said, "I'm glad to be a real boy. I'll never lie again."

Once a cunning jackal jumped into a big tub of blue dye. "I am your king," he said. All the animals, big and small believed him and bowed before him. The clever jackal smiled. Now he was the most powerful animal in the forest. He was proud to be a king.

Once, the jackal woke up in the middle of the night. The jackals in the forest were howling at the full moon in the sky. The blue jackal forgot he was a king. He, too, began to howl.

"Hu.aah! Hu.aah!" he cried.

The animals ran out to see. "He is not a king. He is just a jackal!" they shouted. They rushed to attack him.

"Stop, stop! I am sorry I tricked you. Please do not kill me!" said the blue jackal.

The animals forgave him, but only after giving the jackal a good beating.

Unit 9

Poem : The Naughty Boy
Story: Pinocchio

By this Unit the children would have enriched their vocabulary through telling, retelling and reading aloud of poems, stories, folk tales in English. They would also use appropriate spoken and written language in meaningful contents/situations. Give children opportunities to listen to sound/sound techniques and appreciate the rhythm and music of rhymes – sounds.

Teachers in the entire country welcome puppets into the classroom, they preserve traditions and make them a vital part of everyday learning. Puppets can be used to explain, describe, direct, tell stories, ask questions and create dramatic situations where children respond.

Puppets can provide children with many opportunities to expand language skills and challenge their imaginations. Students can develop confidence talking through the characters of puppets.

Transference of language one to language two will now be felt only if your observation about each child in your group is relevant. We are giving you a mere guideline to follow. This assessment should be more on the patterns of –

1. your observation of the child as an individual and as a team member in a group.
2. determining the cause of the child's school-related difficulties.
3. understanding her/his individual learning style.
4. consultation with parents/other teachers to review assessment findings and determining an appropriate intervention plan.
