

Essay on Hindi Diwas :

History of Hindi Diwas

Hindi Diwas is celebrated on 14 September every year in India to promote the importance of the Hindi language. Hindi is the fourth most spoken language in the world after English, Spanish, and Mandarin. After independence, the biggest question that arises in the country was the language. On 6 December 1946, the Constituent Assembly of India was elected to write the Constitution of India. The Constituent Assembly of India has proposed Hindi as India's official language on September 14th, 1949.

Why Hindi Diwas is celebrated on 14th September?

On 14 September 1949, the Constituent Assembly decided to select Hindi as the official language of India. To propose the importance of this decision and to spread Hindi in every region, on the request of Rashtrabhasha Prachar Samiti, Wardha, from 1953 on 14 September, India is celebrating every year Hindi Diwas. Apart from this, 14 September is also the birthday of Rajendra Singh, who worked hard continuously towards making the Hindi language the official language of India.
