

Essay on Time:

Time is not the main thing, It's the only thing. An inch of time is an inch of Gold but you can't buy that an inch of time with an inch of gold. Time is the coin of your life. It is the only coin you have, and only you can determine how it will be spent. Be careful lest you let other people spend it for you. Time is like a river, you cannot touch the same water twice, because the flow that has passed will never pass again. Time = life; therefore, waste your time and waste of your life, or master your time and master your life.

Time can make you a king or a beggar in a matter of seconds so it is important for everyone to utilize the time wisely. If we don't give importance to time, time won't give importance to our life. Time is one of the valuable gifts given by God we should not waste the time by spending on unnecessary activities instead of we should use time properly for productive activities which shape our lives.

There was no person in the world who succeeded in life without valuing time. Time forms the basis of life and it plays a significant in everyone's life. We do and perform everything in our life based on time. From our childhood, getting up from bed, Going to school, writing exams, doing homework, sleeping, and what not we do everything based on the time. In order to manage your life properly, first, you need to manage your time.

We know the phrase that "time stands for no one whether king or beggar, rich or poor, Muslim or Hindu, educated person or layman, man or woman, famous or ordinary, elder person or younger person. Everyone is blessed with 24 hours whether to utilize it for good or bad things. Everyone is given an equal duration to achieve their dreams or to waste them. The reason why one man is great and another man is living in mediocrity is simply because one understood the value of time while the other did not.

"Time is Priceless". We can't buy invisible things or great things in life happiness, freedom, peace, health, love, manners, talent, etc., the same thing goes with time. We can earn the money we spent but we can't earn the time we lost. An inch of time is an inch of Gold but you can't buy that an inch of time with an inch of gold. Great things can't be bought, many wealthy spending billions of dollars to live and enjoy more time on this earth.

Value of Time:

No man can achieve success if he didn't understand the value of time. Before leaving this earth, everyone should understand the value of time. The person who understands the value of time will respect time. The person who doesn't understand the value of time postpones the work that is supposed to be done within that time or does nothing even he/she a time in hand. Many of us waste our time simply at different points in our lives. Some people don't complete the work until they are near to the deadline, Few students do not study when they have sufficient time in their hands and they think that they can complete and cover the complete syllabus when exams start. These are examples of people who don't understand and respect the value of time.

Poems on Time:

A New Time-Table by Anonymous

How much good can I do in it?

Sixty minutes make an hour,—

All the good that's in my power.

Twenty hours and four, a day,—

Time for work, and sleep, and play.

Days, three hundred sixty-five

Make a year for me to strive

Eight good things for me to do,

That I wise may grow and true.

Even Such Is Time by Sir Walter Raleigh

Even such is Time, that takes in trust
Our youth, our joys, our all we have,
And pays us but with earth and dust;
Who in the dark and silent grave
When we have wandered all our ways,
Shuts up the story of our days;
But from this earth, this grave, this dust,
My God shall raise me, I trust.

They say that Time assuages by Emily Dickinson

They say that 'time assuages,' —
Time never did assuage;
Actual suffering strengthens,
As sinews do, with age.
Time is a test of trouble,
But not a remedy.
If such it proves, it proves too
There was no malady.

As Time Passes by Jenni-Fiere M. Bivens

As the seconds pass,
We look back
At what our lives have held.
As the minutes pass,
We see what fell through the cracks.
Parts of our lives we withheld.
As the hour's pass,
We think of what we learned,
What we have taught,
What we have forgotten.
As the days pass,
We wish a lot could be returned.
We wish we would have never fought
You hope they forget me not.
As years pass,
You stand alone.
They have all grown,
Married and gone
Or on their own.
As your life passes,
You stand proud,
Looking at how well they raise their own.
You did well.
Live on...
