Short Essay on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao

Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Abhiyan is one of the schemes for helping the girl child and saving the girl child. It is a social scheme helpful for all the girl child of the country after they start moving to society. The motto of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao is to save the girl child, every girl should be educated, increase the rate of girl childbirth, decrease the issues faced by women in society, and help in all positive ways. As female foeticide is increasing in India about the girl child, the government started these schemes to help in all the ways to the families. There are many states in India had a low girl rate and high boy rate of birth which can imbalance the society from today.

After seeing all the issues with the girl mainly female foeticide in girl childbirth in India, Prime minister Narendra Modi started this scheme. The Campaign is under 3 ministries of the Indian Government, Human Resource Development, Health and Family welfare, women and Child Development ministries were involved. The government is getting good support from the people and all the girl child families are profiting from these types of schemes for any type of needs. Every girl child should get equal facilities like a boy child in society and every sector.

In India, this scheme was initiated in Haryana state which had a low female sex ratio and by today it was applied all over the country to balance the girl and women in the society. A huge number of middle and more disadvantaged girl child families can be developed by educating the girls under the scheme and results to work in any sector. These types of schemes are necessary for countries like India to stable the sex ratio and move the country in a developing way with positive thinking.

Long Essay on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao

Beti Bachao Beti Padho is a social scheme inaugurated by Narendra Modi on January 22, 2015, for the welfare of girl children in India. It is a campaign done by the Government of India to balance the gender ratio and much other discrimination happening towards girls all over the country. This Scheme's motto is to Save the girl child and educate the girl child. There are many schemes from the Government of India for the girl's needs and economical support to their families and the girl's future. The common point in all the girl child schemes is to stop and decrease the rate of Female Foeticide about the girl child. In India, there is a lot of discrimination against women of all ages and the crime rate towards women was expanding day by day. By considering all the issues on the women the government started supporting and introducing many safety schemes for women's welfare.

Beti Bachao Beti Padho is running under 3 ministries of the Government of India. There are many schemes under these ministries working for women's safety, saving girl children, educating a girl, removing discrimination towards women, and many more issues to make women strengthen in the country. The government had made these campaigns to educate the people about the girl child and bring awareness about women's lives in society.

According to 2001 census data, the child sex ratio for 0-6 years aged children in India is 933 girls per 1000 boys and this number of girls was further decreased in the 2011 census of India's population. As this rate further decreases the society should face many problems and can lead to a pause for the country's development.

In India, a large number of families are economically weak and look for the boy child to remove all the issues in the family. By this idea, the families are forcing women to abort if they came to know that a girl child is developing in the womb. Similarly, these people think that a girl child is a burden to their family and cannot support economically to full fill the girl's needs. So the Narendra Modi Government considered all these issues and started introducing all the schemes needed for a girl starting from birth until getting married. The schemes are helpful for girl child families in every moment in various ways. These schemes make the women move into society and work in all the sectors to give high competition to men.

Beti Bachao Beti Padhao's essay concludes that every girl should be treated equally as the way a boy was treated. In India, all these schemes should strictly apply to society to increase the girl child in every aspect. The government of India should introduce many more schemes & amendments for girls' and women's welfare. The government should get awareness for people by Beti Bachao Beti Padho drawing competitions, Beti Bachao Beti Padho logo importance, Beti Bachao Beti Padho images in the public areas, etc. All these ways can get some change in the people and make them think in a positive way to give birth to a girl child.
