Short Essay on Money Can't Buy Happiness

This is the Short Essay on Money Can't Buy Happiness. It is one of the famous proverb "Money can't buy happiness". Yes in reality when compared to life the proverb is best suited. It is very important to be happy in life but money cannot buy all the happiness along with the other luxuries. Man can buy all the needs and wants with money and can be happy. But the essential thing is happiness for the whole life is not bought by money. Money can make a person rich with all the luxuries but cannot buy relationships and the happiness of loved ones. Money is needed to live but it may not constitute the whole part of life. Only with happiness, a man can achieve peace of mind and relaxation in life.

The more money you have in your life the more worried you are in your life. The man runs to earn money in different ways by his knowledge, at last, he stops at some point of time and looks back into life, there he sees only earning money not even a single minute for family and personal happiness. So by this, we can understand that money cannot buy happiness at any cost. The more luxury you enjoy in life by the cost of money but there existence zero percent of happiness in life. In today's modern world, people think that money makes everything this statement is true only to some extent. The main thing in it is you earn money for the sake of your family. But in nowadays there is no time to spend with family. So what is the use of money if there is no happiness? So it is better to have limited money to be happy and healthy all through life. "Money can't buy Happiness" explains the real happiness without money.

Long Essay on Money Can't Buy Happiness

Here is the Long Essay on Money Can't Buy Happiness which helps the students to know the real meaning of the proverb. Money can't buy Happiness is the best proverb for the present generation. The present generation works with a completely money-oriented mind. They run after money for more wealth. People of today's generation want to become rich in a single day, by this, you can understand who people are addicted to money. By earning more and more money people cannot be happy for even a second in their life. Because they think that they lose that earned money in a fraction of seconds. So they hinder back of that money. The main point they miss in the way of earning money is that they cannot buy happiness with that lots and lots of money.

The more wealthy a person is more unhappy is that person. People of today can buy many and many more things in order to satisfy their wants and needs in life. They can even buy the costliest things like gold, Diamonds, Cars, Houses, etc., but the existence of all these does not give happiness to a person. The more a person is with complete luxury there ends his happiness. Money is essential to lead a life, but it should not be like money is everything in life. It is very important for a person to be very happy and healthy throughout his life. In fact, if a person is happier then he is considered more healthy.

Happiness should come from within the heart and not just a smile on the face. Money cannot buy happiness at any cost. Money is just for fulfilling basic needs. It is not a complete life and many cannot buy some of the essential things in life. It cannot buy peace of mind, relationships, Time, health, etc. For a man wants are many but to buy them he needs more and more money. And it is also proved that addiction to money can lead to mental stress and lower the functioning of the brain.

So, by this, we can understand that money is not everything and nobody can bring back the lost things like happiness, pleasures, enjoyments, etc in life.

Money can't buy any of the feelings of a person. Money can only buy the luxury needs of an individual. The happiness of a person is priceless and you cannot buy it. The free things are considered are of use. But by the end of life people search for such emotions to enjoy them. Hence "Money can't buy Happiness" explains the complete happiness of a person should come from the bottom of the heart and also says that people cannot buy happiness with money.
